

Waterfront Boat Show to be held April 27

News Release Date

04-08-2024

The background of the poster is a scenic view of Edenton Harbor. On the left, there is a large, two-story yellow building with a red roof, likely a historic structure. The water is calm, reflecting the sky and the buildings. In the distance, more boats and structures are visible along the waterfront. The sky is blue with scattered white clouds.
